KING OF THE HAMMERS: THE ULTRA4 SAGA

New episode: The Showdown. Saturday 24 March at 8.10pm EST

'King of the Hammers: The Ultra4 Saga' continues in Reno, Nevada. The last race of the series will crown one driver National Champion. A three kilometre course packs a year's worth of driving challenges into one brutally competitive race. At 1,500 metres above sea level with massive 'table top' jumps, extreme vertical ups and downs and rock sections that can explode tyres, it's the toughest battle yet. Leaders Wayland Campbell and Levi Shirley push each other to their limits in a race for the trophy, while top drivers like Jason Scherer and Loren Healy show just how fast 4x4 off-road racing has become.

GYMKHANA GRID PROFILES

Saturdays from 31 March at 8.10pm EST

'Gymkhana Grid Profiles' features eight race car drivers – from world rally cross legend Petter Solberg and viral sensation drifter Ken Block to grass roots racers from the UK and Europe – in their quest to stand on top of the podium at the championship finals in South Africa. Each film focuses on one driver's personal journey and the epic challenges he or she faced to become a champion. For some, like three-time grid champion Luke Woodham and rival British driver Adam Elder, the biggest hurdle is juggling their day jobs with racing competitively. For Shane Lynch, day job means touring with his world-famous band Boyzone. Above all, the 'Gymkhana Grid Profiles' showcases the passion behind the driver's need for speed and drive to win.
