In 2015, Nigel Petrie embarked on a journey with a group of friends (and his incredibly supportive wife) to realize a dream of laying down a record at the DLRA salt flat speed trials on Lake Gairdner, South Australia. A desire to build his own machines and the pursuit of speed lead Nigel to create a Salt Flat Racer from a 350cc KTM. The childhood dream of setting a land-speed record fuels his journey to the DLRA 25th Annual Speed Week. The journey takes Nigel and his team from Geelong, Victoria along the famed Great Ocean Road and across to the Salt Flats in South Australia, on a spirited adventure filled with obstacles, challenges and friendship.

THRU is a new reality knock-out game set in Greece. Two teams of nine people compete, bringing courage, stamina and team spirit to the game grounds. Host Brendan Moar brings fantastic locations, a bucket of money and a handful of surprises. In each episode the teams must follow a precise straight line from point A to point B, with each team starting at opposite ends of the grounds. On the track they'll find all kinds of obstacles, including buildings, natural drop-offs, swamps, fences, pools and closed gates, but they must strictly follow the path or they will be penalized for going off-track. Which team will make the fewest mistakes? Halfway along the path Brendan will appear with a special message: the teams are too big to continue, and must decide who is least valuable to the group. Emotions run high as the teams conquer the beautiful - and sometimes less than beautiful - Greek landscape.
